

Subject: Thank You and Happy Holidays

A very merry Christmas, happy Hanukah and happy holidays from all of us at PSI Consultants!

Once again, in lieu of sending out holiday cards or gifts this year, we have made a charitable contribution to the Wounded Warrior Project www.woundedwarriorproject.org who for 11 years has helped tens of thousands of injured veterans and their families heal from both the visible and unseen wounds of war. WWP provides programs specifically structured to help wounded veterans live active and healthy lives through adaptive sports, recreational activities and nutrition education so they can achieve independence and enjoy an improved quality of life. Other programs include collegiate education programs, IT training and employment assistance so they can have more long term financial stability.

Eighty percent of total revenue goes to these programs. The balance towards administrative and fund raising efforts. The Wounded Warrior Project meets high standards of public accountability, program and cost effectiveness.

We appreciate your business and the relationship we have developed. Our sincerest wishes for a healthy, happy and prosperous new year.

Sincerely,
Ed Gaelick, CLU, ChFC
